(1) who regularly extends home loans that are subject to a finance charge or that are payable by written agreement in more than four (4) installments; and

Sec. 7. (a) Not later than October 1, 2009, the homeowner protection unit established by the attorney general under IC 4-6-12 shall prescribe a form that:

- (1) shall be used by creditors under subsection (b); and
- (2) informs a borrower of the borrower's rights under section 8 of this chapter.

(b) A creditor that seeks to issue a home loan in Indiana after December 31, 2009, shall provide the notice described in subsection (a) to the borrower at the same time that the creditor provides the good faith estimates required under the federal Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act (12 U.S.C. 2601 et seq.), as amended.

Sec. 8. (a) Subject to subsection (c), a closing agent in a home loan transaction shall permit the borrower to inspect the closing documents, completed to set forth those items that are known to the closing agent at the time of inspection, not later than one (1) business day before the closing of the home loan. In the case of a purchase money home loan, items related only to the seller's transaction may be omitted from the closing documents.

(b) The closing agent shall make the closing documents available to the borrower for inspection under subsection (a):

the borrower is entitled to delay or reschedule the closing without penalty and without forfeiting the right to enter into the home loan or, in the case of a purchase money home loan, into the purchase contract. A borrower that exercises the right to delay or reschedule a closing under this subsection must offer to reschedule the closing for a date that is not later than three (3) business days after the date of the closing that the borrower seeks to reschedule, subject to the availability of the other parties to the transaction.

(e) Subject to subsections (f), (g), and (h) and section 9 of this chapter, if the terms of the home loan set forth in the closing documents inspected by the borrower under subsection (a) differ from the terms of the home loan presented to the borrower at the time of the closing, the borrower is entitled to:

- (1) delay or reschedule the closing without penalty and without forfeiting the right to enter into the home loan or, in the case of a purchase money home loan, into the purchase contract; and
- (2) if the creditor does not conform the terms of the home loan to the terms set forth in the closing documents inspected by the borrower under subsection (a), bring an action against the creditor (or against any subsequent holder or assignee of the home loan if the home loan proceeds to closing) for:

(A) actual damages, including:

- (i) consequential damages; and
- (ii) if the home loan does not proceed to closing, any damages suffered by the borrower as a result of not entering into the home loan or into the purchase contract;

(B) if the home loan proceeds to closing, statutory damages equal to two (2) times the difference between:

- (i) the finance charge (as described in 15 U.S.C. 1638(a)) that would result from the maximum interest rate set forth in the actual loan documents; minus
- (ii) the finance charge (as described in 15 U.S.C. 1638(a)) that would result from the maximum interest rate set forth in the closing documents inspected by the borrower under subsection (a);

if the finance charge set forth in the actual loan documents is greater than finance charge set forth in the closing documents inspected by the borrower under subsection (a);

(C) reasonable costs and attorney's fees; and

(D) injunctive, declaratory, and other equitable relief as the court determines appropriate.

C

A borrower that exercises the right to delay or reschedule a closing under subdivision (1) must offer to reschedule the closing for a date that is not later than three (3) business days after the date of the closing that the borrower seeks to reschedule, subject to the availability of the other parties to the transaction.

(f) For purposes of subsection (e), "terms", with respect to a home loan, means any terms identified as loan terms in the HUD-1 or HUD-1A settlement statement required under the federal Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act (12 U.S.C. 2601 et seq.), as amended.

(g) For purposes of subsection (e), a term set forth in the closing documents presented to the borrower at the time of the closing is not considered to differ from the same term set forth in the closing documents inspected by the borrower under subsection (a) if the difference between the two (2) terms:

- (1) is within any applicable tolerance for accuracy prescribed in the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act (12 U.S.C. 2601 et seq.), as amended; or
- (2) is the result of the expiration of an interest rate lock-in period, or other interest rate guarantee, between the time of the borrower's inspection of the documents under subsection (a) and the time of the closing, if the term at issue is the interest rate applicable to the home loan.

(h) An action under subsection (e)(2) must be brought not later than five (5) years after:

- (1) the closing of the home loan, if the home loan proceeds to closing; or
- (2) the date of the first scheduled closing with respect to the home loan, if the home loan does not proceed to closing.

Sec. 9. (a) In addition to the remedies available to the borrower under section 8(e) of this chapter, if the terms of a home loan set forth in the closing documents inspected by a borrower under section 8(a) of this chapter differ from the terms of the home loan presented to the borrower at the time of the closing, the attorney general, acting through the attorney general's homeowner protection unit established under IC 4-6-12, may, upon the attorney general's own motion or upon receiving a complaint from the borrower or any other person involved in the closing, investigate the circumstances surrounding the home loan to determine:

- (1) the reasons for the discrepancy between the terms of the home loan set forth in the closing documents inspected by the borrower under section 8(a) of this chapter and the terms of the home loan presented to the borrower at the time of closing;

(2) whether there was an attempt by the creditor to deceive or defraud the borrower by presenting different terms at the time of the closing;

(3) whether the creditor involved in the closing has engaged in a pattern or practice of presenting loan terms at the time of closing that differ from the loan terms set forth in closing documents inspected by borrowers before scheduled closings under section 8(a) of this chapter; and

(4) whether the creditor's actions in the case being investigated constitute a violation of:

(A) the federal Truth in Lending Act (15 U.S.C. 1601 et seq.);

(B) the federal Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act (12 U.S.C. 2601 et seq.), as amended; or

(C) any other federal laws or regulations concerning mortgage lending;

as authorized by IC 4-6-12-3. In conducting an investigation under this section, the attorney general may cooperate with any entity described in IC 4-6-12-4 that may have jurisdiction in the matter, as authorized by IC 4-6-12-5.

(b) Subject to subsection (d), if, after an investigation conducted under subsection (a) the attorney general determines that:

(1) there was an attempt by the creditor to deceive or defraud the borrower by presenting different terms at the time of the closing; or

(2) the creditor involved in the closing has engaged in a pattern or practice of presenting loan terms at the time of closing that differ from the loan terms set forth in closing documents inspected by borrowers before scheduled closings under section 8(a) of this chapter;

the attorney general may pursue any enforcement action or penalty available under IC 24-9-8 for a violation of this article, including bringing an action under IC 24-5-0.5, as authorized by IC 24-9-8-1. In addition, the attorney general may file a complaint with any entity described in IC 4-6-12-4 that may have jurisdiction over the matter, as authorized by IC 4-6-12-5.

(c) If, after an investigation conducted under subsection (a), the attorney general determines that the creditor has violated:

(1) the federal Truth in Lending Act (15 U.S.C. 1601 et seq.);

C

(2) the federal Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act (12 U.S.C. 2601 et seq.), as amended; or

(3) any other federal laws or regulations concerning mortgage lending;

the attorney general may, to the extent authorized by federal law, enforce compliance with the federal statutes or regulations described in this subsection or refer the suspected violation to the appropriate federal regulatory agencies, as authorized by IC 4-6-12-3.

(d) Any action by the attorney general under this section must be brought not later than five (5) years after:

(1) the closing of the home loan that prompted the investigation, if the home loan proceeded to closing; or

(2) the date of the first scheduled closing with respect to the home loan that prompted the investigation, if the home loan did not proceed to closing.

Sec. 10. (a) If a closing agent knowingly or willfully fails to permit a borrower in a home loan transaction to inspect the closing documents with respect to the home loan:

(1) within the time specified in section 8(a) of this chapter; or

(2) in the manner specified in section 8(b) of this chapter;

the closing agent is subject to a civil penalty of twenty-five dollars ($25), unless the borrower has waived the borrower's right to inspect the closing documents under section 8(c) of this chapter.

(b) A penalty described in subsection (a):

(1) may be enforced by the state agency that has administrative jurisdiction over the closing agent in the same manner that the agency enforces the payment of fees or other penalties payable to the agency; and

(2) shall be paid into the home ownership education account established by IC 5-20-1-27.

(c) A closing agent is not liable for any other damages claimed by a customer because of the closing agent's failure to comply with this chapter."
